Wellness Council of WV Announces Corporate Partnerships

The Wellness Council of West Virginia is pleased to announce Corporate Partnership with the American Cancer Society and Jackson Kelly PLLC.

The American Cancer Society is the nationwide community-based voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives, and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy, and service. The American Cancer Society's international mission concentrates on capacity building in developing cancer societies and on collaboration with other cancer-related organizations throughout the world in carrying out shared strategic directions. ACS is proud to announce launch their newest program, ACS at Work at this fall's Governor's Conference on Worksite Wellness.

Jackson Kelly PLLC is the oldest (1822) and largest (over 150 lawyers) law firm in West Virginia. With eleven offices located throughout West Virginia, and in Lexington, KY, Denver, CO, Pittsburgh, PA and Washington, DC, Jackson Kelly PLLC combines diversity, specialization and commitment to excellence to provide the innovative and high quality legal representation that every client deserves and should expect to receive. Jackson Kelly will present a case study on the firm's very successful wellness initiative at the 19th Annual Governor's Conference on Worksite Wellness.

The WCWV looks forward to year-round programming opportunities which will be made possible by these corporate partnerships.

Walk Out of Work!
